

MP Positions on Marriage

About this information

The following information was compiled by the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada, and is based on past voting records and other sources. It represents our best and most recent information regarding the positions of Canadian Members of Parliament on the definition of marriage as of January 2005. If you know any information below to be inaccurate, please contact us.

Please note: We cannot guarantee that the following information is an accurate representation of how each MP will vote on this issue.

About this table

According to the traditional definition of marriage, marriage applies exclusively to the legally recognized union of a man and a woman. The far right column of this table states whether the MP supports this traditional definition of marriage.

Yes = This MP supports the traditional definition of marriage.

No = This MP does not support the traditional definition of marriage.

? = This MP's position on the definition of marriage is unclear or unknown.

[C] = This symbol will be found next to an MP's position, and indicates that the MP is a Cabinet Minister and, as such, will be required by Prime Minister Paul Martin to vote in favour of redefining marriage to include same-sex couples.
